Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street.

The political situation in the city reached an acute stage yesterday with the announcement that D. L. Toney would probably be a candidate for Moyor Moyor the control of the control of the control of the control of the city of the city

Mr. Toney, as a citizen and business man, has been prominent in the city for years.

He has served the city in the Assembly, in the State Legislature, and has also been postmaster. He held the latter office under President Cleveland, and in the course of several months of his administration he raised the standing of the office from a third-class to a second-class office.

Mr. Toney has not only been interested in political and municipal affairs, but has also been a prominent and successful merchant, conducting a large grocery and mercantile business, and only lately added the Lafayette House to his interests in the city, which is the only hotel here.

Matters have taken an interesting turn in Second Ward, there being two candidates mentioned in connection with the vacancy to be filled in the Board of Aldermen—Messrs. James Cleary and John P. Sampson.

In this ward Captain Tillery, the incumbent falled to nay his polit fax and able that Mr. Toney will run for Mayor against the two candidates already in the field.

Cleary and John P. Sampson.
In this ward Captain Tillery, the ineumbent, falled to pay his poll tax, and is therefore disqualified. Mr. Cleary, who is mentioned as a candidate, was out of the city last night, and could not be sann.

New Dwellings to Go Up.
Every Indication seems to point to a healthy condition of affairs in Manchester, and nothing shows this more foreibly than the amount of building that is being viamed.

Messrs. J. Z. Walker and Morton
Graves have contracted with Mr. R. D.
Walker for two handsome residences
on Forter Street, between Fifteenth and Cowardin Avenue, These residences will be created on one of the most desirable blocks in the city and will be handsome brick structures.

SUCCESS OF DR. EVANS

Former Richmond Rector Writes of Work in Birmingham.

Friends of the Rev. Dr. William F. Evans, formerly of this city, will be glad to hear of his gratifying success in the field of his present labors at Birmingham. Ala.

In a recent letter received by a triend here, he writes: "My church here is a large, massive gray stone building, and my congregations are fine. I had the largest communion yeaterday that this church has seen for years. Indeed, the genior warden said it was the largest that the church had ever had. I am making a specially of my night services and the attendance at these services and the attendance at these services is increasing right along."

Dr. Evans goes on to say that while he likes Birmingham and his work there, he remembers Richmond and his former congregation here with teelings of the warmest interest and affection.
